Remember Pearl Harbor !

You shall know the Truth and the Truth shall make you free from the Usurers who planned and carried out the Pearl Harbor attack with the help of the U. S. General Staff and sacrificed needlessly human lives on Bataan, Iwo Jima, Normandy, etc.

FDR did, and all high politicians in the Democratic, Republican and Communist parties are working against the Republic to reduce this nation to the level of British subjects who, also, are becoming Soviet puppets.

God Still Rules Supreme

By C. Leon de Aryan

Thruout the war-terror-reign of his majesty, the late occupant in the White House, I carried on the front page the lines, "Ain't it queer... that God still rules supreme...", to break the terror-spell cast upon the people who discarded the Ten Commandments to worship a double-crossing politician and obey this miserable creature in place of God.

Results demonstrate that no man is smart enough to fool God. Pearl Harbor proves that the Truth cannot be killed even though millions of human lives has been sacrificed in the effort. The Truth finally emerges to light and the criminals who usurped the power of God to deal Death and Terror are called before His Almighty Throne to answer regardless of all the Nudealers in Congress and in the White House. Even Truman has to answer.

In my life, crowded with action and experiences, I have staked everything on the Truth, time and again, even life itself, and never was I disappointed. The Truth has more actual, active power than the atomic bombs of all the scientific murderers and terrorists combined. It explodes every falsehood and levels material power reared from falsehood.

In the late fall of 1936, when I dared protest against the usurpation of police powers by the striking longshoremen in San Diego, I crossed their picket lines, was beaten up, thrown in the bay, but came out alive. In court they produced over a dozen witnesses to prove that I was never beaten up, but that I had jumped into 34 feet of ice cold water to get "publicity," because I "hated" the labor unions. Businessmen and others, with offices at the waterfront, who had seen what happened were afraid to testify. One jury was dismissed, it was hung 6 to 6. The second jury convicted the assailants by a miracle.

Since I had no witnesses my only reliance was on the power of the Truth itself. I sat in that court room and if ever there was concentration on the Power of Truth, it was there.

The world around us is populated by unseen beings. Some call them angels, others call them spirits. I called upon these unseen witnesses to bring out the Truth. Their combined Thought-Power with mine produced the miracle. The very captain of pickets, under cross-examination, gave finally away the true incidents and conviction followed. Truth triumphs if you don't give up but demand it!

CHRISTIAN FRONT COURT TRIAL IN N. Y.

At present there exists a parrallel incident in the state of New York. Three soap box orators at a Christian Front out-of-doors rally, have been charged and arrested, now under bond, for having conspired to incite to riot, race riot against Jews. Their case is coming up in court.

Just as in San Diego the better element was terrorized by the longshoremen and dared not testify in court against them, in New York the Jews are influencing public officials and private persons, so that it appears the defendants will be overwhelmed by perjured testimony. And here again comes the power of the Truth itself to measure swords with the liars.

The first thing is, never doubt but that the Truth will triumph. There are enough white people in New York who know what THOUGHT-power will do And all it takes is concentration regardless of whether they be present in the court room or elsewhere. As long as you demand and have faith that God rules supreme, your demand will be honored by the Invisible Ones who rule men's destinies. Man proposes, but God disposes. Look at Pearl Harbor! FDR and Churchill imagined that by locking up Tyler Kent they could suppress the Truth. With Kent in jail the Truth is coming out.

All those Jewish witnesses who will be foolish enough to perjure themselves will thereby become liable to criminal charges of conspiracy to deprive the defendants of their constitutional rights to a fair trial. Not only will they be liable to perjury charges and penalities but the very conspiracy statutes they have used to railroad the 3 defendants will revert against their conspiracy.

Don't say the Jews are so powerful in New York they can do anything. There is none more powerful than the Truth. As each one takes his oath as a witness, you invoke the power of the Almighty to hold that Jew responsible for every word he says. HOLD ON TO THAT RIGHT which we have to demand from one under oath, and watch results. One of those witnesses will give away the whole conspiracy, as the longshoremen picket captain gave away the plot of the crew who beat me up and threw me in the bay. Where even ONE God-conscious soul demands his RIGHT before the Almighty the power of all fools is broken. Break the Spell!

'Dangerous' Pearl Harbor Witness Called 'Insane'

WASHINGTON,—The Navy denied Republican charges hat a potential witness in the Pearl Harbor inquiry had been "broken in mind and body" and was being held incommunicado in a hospital psychopathic ward.

The Navy identified the officer as Capt. Alwin D. Kramer, of Miami, Fla., a veteran of Pacific service. The Navy statement said Kramer was ill in the hospital which he entered Sept. 28.

In a 45-minute colloquy on the House floor Gearhart also charged that Henry L. Stimson sent Maj. Henry C. Clausen "all over the world" getting affidavits in which witnesses changed testimony before an Army board inquiring into Pearl Harbor.

The U. S. cracked the Japanese code before Pearl Harbor and knew war was imminent but the commanders at Pearl Harbor were not notified of these developments.

Tyler Kent Afraid to Talk

LONDON,— Tyler Kent, American citizen held for over five years in English jails had applied twice within the last fortnight for releases under habeas corpus writs and so far there had been no reply and no redress. His sentence expired on Oct. 4.

Kent today spoke as a man might who is learning to talk again after having been shell-shocked or shipwrecked. He ran his fingers thru his short brown hair and his blue eyes flickered incessantly from the top of the wooden table in his cell to the impassive warder standing and jingling keys outside.

He was talking to the second person in five years who was not a warder, a detective, or a lawyer. He was ill at ease, bewildered to see a stranger, and afraid.

Protests Still Being Held

"I don't want to make a statement—that's the last thing I want to do until I'm out of here. If you quote me for something they don't like, God knows when I'll get out," he said.

"I've no complaints—I'm in no position to complain about the broad issues of my case, but there's one immediate issue that nothing's going to stop me from complaining about. My complaint is this:

"Why is it that altho my sentence expired on Oct. 4 I'm still being held in prison? I was told that I should be released and deported. I was promised that I should be out of here and aboard a ship due to sail on Oct. 11. That was cancelled—I don't know why. Then I was told that a boat would be sailing on Oct. 19 That, too, was canceled and I'm still here."

Sees Strong Influences

The only other nonofficial Kent has seen in five years has been a young, dark haired girl, who has visited him at every opportunity and has written him every week. This girl, who was with Kent when he was arrested, told me Kent believes he received a heavy sentence and is being kept in prison now because strong influences in America wish him to be gagged.

War Fought to Enthrone Jews

LOS ANGELES,— Gerald L. K. Smith retained his permit from the Board of Education to make a second "Ham and Eggs" talk at Polytechnic Auditorium Saturday night.

Granting of the permit was protested when speakers for various labor and racial groups told the Board that Smith's sentiments are anti-Jewish, anti-Negro and anti-labor.

Smith, speaking in his own defense against a chorus of jeers and hisses from 400 spectators, denied the assertions and maintained that the opposition against him was due to his anti-communist sentiments.

Among the spokesmen against Smith's use of school buildings for talks sponsored by the Payroll Guarantee ("Ham and Eggs") Assn. were John McTernan, president of the Lawyer's Guild and also representing the Mobilization for Democracy.

WAR FOUGHT FOR JEWS "SEDITION" DEFINED

"We have just finished a war," McTernan told the Board, "in which we have been fighting anti-semitism. The advocacy of anti-semitism constitutes seditious activity and should bar Smith from the use of a school building."

Speaking in his own defense, Smith denounced the efforts to link him with subversive movements, the leaders of which had been imprisoned.

"While these men have been imprisoned," Smith said, "I have never been called even once before a grand jury."

Gerald Smith to Speak in San Diego

A renewed effort will be made by the Payroll Guarantee association to obtain permission for Gerald L. K. Smith, America First leader, to make a speech in a San Diego school auditorium, legal advisers to the association indicated.

Members of the group said the request will be placed before the San Diego school board at the next meeting and if their request is denied, a new petition for a writ of mandate will be filed in superior court.

Superior Judge L. N. Turrentine sustained a demurrer to a writ of mandate filed by the association, holding the petition was faulty technically.

KENNY'S UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES SCORED

LOS ANGELES,— Two members of the Los Angeles board of education recommended to California's Atty. Gen. Robert W. Kenny that he use legeal means to bar Gerald L. K. Smith from using school auditoriums, instead of "arousing mass hysteria."

J. Paul Elliott and Mrs. Eleanor B. Allen particularly condemned picketing by high school children in efforts to block the America First leader's speech at Polytechnic High school auditorium.

No Discretionary Power

Smith spoke on behalf of the "Ham 'n-Eggs" pension plan.

The board said it had no discretionary power to deny him use of the auditorium so long as he did not advocate overthrow of the government.

"If the attorney general disagrees with the law he should endeavor to correct it," Elliott said. "We have received no opinion from him contrary to the opinion of the county counsel that the board could not deny Smith a permit.

"NOT AMERICAN WAY"

"Arousing mass hysteria, provoking mass street assembly, mass exodus of children from school and unlawful disturbances of public meetings is not the American way of determining rights."

Kenny is chairman of the Mobilization for Democracy, an anti-Smith organization which urged community organizations to protest Smith's talks before the board and attend a "Stop-Smith" meeting.

Newdeal Kenny vs. Mankind United

NEW CHARGES AGAINST BELL

LOS ANGELES,— Arthur L. Bell, whom the state seeks to oust as head of the $4,000,000 Church of the Golden Rule, was accused by the state of not being a bona fide member of the church and using it merely as a money-making scheme.

The state also charged that the church was incorporated fraudulently and was not a "religious, non-profit, or charitable organization" as purported.

It was, in effect, a gigantic life, health and accident insurance company, the state contended.

"The church guaranteed to care for, provide for and give medical aid and burial service to each of its members—provided they surrender all their assets to the church." Attorney Warren Olney III, representing the Attorney General's office, said.

The complaint was brought by Olney to Federal Court where the California Attorney General Kenny seeks to block change of jurisdiction of the case from state to Federal Government.

Olney termed Bell's application to have the case decided under Federal bankruptcy proceedings " a device to obtain payment of $434,-734 of the church's assets to Bell's wife Ruby V. Chapman."

"The claim of Bell's wife, he said, was "false, fictitious and fraudulent."

CHURCH HEAD BELL OUSTED

LOS ANGELES,— Arthur (The Voice) Bell, convicted of sedition in 1943, was temporarily ousted from management of the far-flung commercial enterprises of Christ's Crurch of the Golden Rule.

Superior Judge Henry M. Willis granted Attorney General Robert W. Kenny's request for a receivership of an estimated $3,600,000 worth of assorted assets, declaring:

"The proofs show not only that the corporation has failed to comply with its trusts, but has departed from the general purposes for which it was formed. The showing of absence of any complete books is of itself sufficient to warrant the conclusion that the corporation has failed to comply with a trust assumed by it."

Judge Willis, who said Bell has "complete control" of the corporation, appointed Roy. E. Allen as receiver until a trial and accounting can be held.

The judge pointed out that no decision on the merits of the case could be made until the trial.

Bell, former leader of Mankind United, is appealing his sedition conviction.

Bell enraged the labor racketeers, Nudealers and Jews when not submitting to their dictatorship. As head of a $4 million organization he was able to successfully defend himself a-against his un-American persecutors. Kenny, a Nudeal-Red and Jewish lick-spittle, tries to take over control of the organization, muscling in.

It is known in Washington that there are about 1,000,000 combat troops in Romania and Bulgaria. It is also known that about 30 Red divisions have been gathered in the Caucasus and in Armenia on the eastern border of Turkey, while the Russian garrison in Northern Iran has been considerably strengthened recently.

According to military observers, the Russian front in the Middle East, extending from Batum to east of Lake Urmia, has a force of about 800,-000 men equipped with modern war material, tanks and planes. Much of the equipment was received from the United States unler the lend-lease agreement.

Should the Russians decide to take what they believe belongs to them, the Turks will fight even against overwhelming odds.

Allied Bombing Starved Belsen Prisoners

LUENEBURG, Germany,—Herman Mueller, an SS (Elite guard) official in charge of food stores at the Belsen concentration camp, has been found after two months search and will appear in the Belsen war crimes trial as one of six final defense witnesses, defending counsel reported.

Mueller is expected to tell of the difficulties in getting food for over-crowded Belsen, to corroborate Commandant Joseph Kramer's testimony that his efforts to supplement the camp's food supplies failed. Kramer said bombing raids broke down transport systems.

British Justice (?)

Tyler Kent, an American who was employed as a code clerk in our embassy in London, was convicted five years ago in a secret trial in a British court. He was charged with stealing a document from the embassy and communicating its contents to an enemy of England. At the time the United States was not at war.

Now Kent has served his term, but he still is held in prison. Two attempts to release him on habeas corpus writs brought no result. Apparently the most fundamental of all civil rights is a dead letter in England. The government there can keep a man locked up indefinitely when it has no warrant to do so. The victim, appealing to the courts for justice, finds them closed to him. —Chicago Tribune.

Germans Made 'Outlaws' in Bohemia

My Dear Mr. de Aryan:

The readers of your publication may be interested to know the contents of one of the many regulations against the three and one half million Sudeten-Germans by the Russian dominated Czech government of "sincere democracy." It will give an outline of the insanity and brutality of a most barbarous regime which we helped to create and which has our moral support. President Truman offered "wholehearted congratulations of the American people" to President Benes, commemorating the founding of the Czechoslovak Republic in a statement from the White House. The President said: "The American people watch with sympathetic interest the diligent efforts now being made by the Czechoslovak people to restore their independent national life on the traditions which have always been identified with the Czechoslovak Republic. I am confident that the American people will aid the Czechoslovak people in every way possible to achieve this goal."

Undoubtedly it must be true that the nation, with the Senators and Congressmen in deep silence, is sharing the President's views. If our fight for democratic principles, for which this country has sacrificed so enormously, has brought only misery to mankind through the creation and recognition of gangster governments abroad, America had better wake up and do some adjusting before it is too late.

The bloody Red Monster, democracy's gift to Europe, lustily steps over German corpses and is already on our threshhold.

The following lines will reveal to the reader how the brain of this new "ideal democratic" government, of which President Truman speaks so praisingly functions in reality. For the Germans in Europe this spirit of democracy is the deliverer from all misery. It is the unmerciful reaper embracing his victims with the final horrible death-rattle.

Citizens of Vinohrady

The presidium of the Local National Committee for Prague XII has decided to solve the question of Germans, Hungarians and traitors as follows:

1. The term "German" in all its forms will henceforth be written only with small letters, likewise the term "Hungarian."

2. To Germans, Hungarians and traitors apply in future these provisions—

a) all persons who come under the category German, Hungarian, traitor or collaborator will wear on the left side visibly on white canvas, size 10:10 cm., a Swastika together with the number under which they will be registered, and that from the fourteenth year of age. No person marked with the Swastika will receive normal ration cards. The same applies to persons who entered "D" in column 6 (nationally) of their Registration Certificate;

b) no person marked with the Swastika is allowed to use tramway cars except when they go direct to work, then they must do so in the trailer; seats must not be used by these persons;

c) no person marked with the Swastika is allowed to buy, subscribe to, or read daily or other newspapers; this applies also to sub-tenants, if any, of such persons;

e) no person marked with the Swastika is allowed to stay in, or proceed through, public gardens or parks, or woods, they are not allowed to call or use barbers' shops, restaurants, places of amusement of any kind, especially theatres, cinemas, lectures etc., likewise they are not allowed to use laundries, cleaners' shops and rolling-presses. Shopping time for these persons is exclusively between 11 a. m. and 1 p. m., and between 3 and 4 p. m. For disregarding the times so defined both buyer and seller will be liable to same punishment. For dealings with authorities the time between 7:10 and 8:30 a. m. is exclusively fixed for the persons in all offices;

f) no person marked with the Swastika is allowed to be away from his or her home after 8 p. m.;

g) All persons over 14 years of age with the entry "D" in their Registration Certificate report at once, at the latest within two days, to the Control and Report Commission of the L. N. G. for Prague XII (exact address) for the issue of their badges and for registration. Those who fail to report in the set time, and who will be met without the proper badge as prescribed, will be severely punished in the way the Nazi authorities adopted in similar cases. The same punishment will also be meted out to those who abet these persons in any way or associate with them for any purpose whatsoever;

h) All persons with the entry "D" in their Certificates appear without delay before the said Investigation Commission irrespective of whether they have perhaps received provisional certificate concerning freedom of movement, etc. At the same time they submit a proper list of all their property and hand it over, together with all valuables, to the Trustee of National Property of the N. C. XII., likewise also Savings Books and bank and other deposits, if any; they report whether and in what way they have any capital interests, submitting proper evidence; further, they surrender at the same time all wireless sets together with their licenses. Any financial transactions are forbidden and void; the Germans are not entitled to tobacco supplies, and they are not allowed to smoke in public or while working.

Citizens, workers and toiling people! We will, in accordance with the principles of our Government, carry out a proper purge and establish order at least in our district. Therefore help us, you too, to make Vinohrady national and ours as soon as possible.

These measures are only temporary, pending the deportation of all these people.

LOCAL NATIONAL COMMITTEE FOR PRAGUE XII.

OLDRICH HLAS, Chairman.

B'nai B'rith Tear Up Bill of Rights

Polytechnic High School Auditorium Barricaded by Marchers

LOS ANGELES,—Two events that should cause all lovers of liberty to spring into action to see that hereafter freedom of speech and freedom of assemblage are not ruthlessly violated in this city.

The first attack against these freedoms was made at the Board of Education headquarters. The Board had met to reconsider the granting of a permit to the Ham and Eggs organization to hold a meeting in Polytechnic High School auditorium on Oct. 17, at which Gerald L. K. Smith was to be the principal speaker.

Certain groups objected to Smith being allowed to speak in the auditorium, and under the leadership of the so-called "Mobilization for Democracy" they surged into the room to the number of about 400 and for nearly three hours tried to high pressure the Board into cancelling the contract for use of the auditorium.

With almost infinite patience the Board listened to their emotional outbursts and anathemas against Smith. Clever sophistries were employed to make it appear that free speech and free assemblage were not the issues involved. But several representatives of the American Civil Liberties Union were present, including Dr. E. P. Ryland, Director Taft, Atty. Wirin, Rev. A. A. Heist and Prof. Robert Emerson, who insisted that it was a case of the rights of free speech and free assemblage pure and simple and that the Board should stand firmly for these rights. County Counsel Pritchard also staunchly supported this view, advising the Board that under the state civic center law they had no right to cancel the permit. When the vote was finally taken the Board, be it said to their credit, unanimously reaffirmed the right of the Smith forces to use the auditorium.

Of course the "Mobilizers for Democracy" were furious over their defeat. They left the room muttering threats of recall against the Board members, and declaring that they would yet prevent the Smith meeting.

A "PICKET-LINE" PLUS

So they devised the tactic of throwing a "picket line" around the Polytechnic High School the night of the meeting. The pickets began to march at 6 o'clock— an hour before the doors of the auditorium were opened. By 7 P. M. there were thousands in the line, marching three and four abreast, with banners and placards. In fact, it was not a "picket line" at all but a virtual barricade, evidently intended to prevent people from getting into the auditorium. The sidewalks on both Washington Blvd. and Flowers St. were completely monopolized by a double line of closely compacted marchers. They even overflowed into the streets. They were yelling and singing songs. Augmenting their efforts at intimidation were three sound trucks mounted by speakers who egged them on. For hours this continued. Traffic was diverted from the area around the school, giving people who were driving cars the impression that some major calamity was happening at that spot and that they should keep away from there.

To attempt to run the gauntlet and get into the meeting was a real hazard, such as elderly people who make up the rank and file of the Ham and Eggs movement would not take A comparatively small crowd took the risk and got inside the building, but it is believed that hundreds were turned back by the menacing barricaders.

BOB SHULER RUNS THE GAUNTLET

Rev. Robert P. Shuler, pastor of Trinity Methodist Church for the past 25 years, tells his experience trying to get into the meeting. He says: "When I attempted to enter the Polytechnic High School building, I was set upon by this mob, with police looking on, was kicked, struck over the head with a stick and twice pushed to my knees. I was cursed, called a vile name by one girl, though I had never spoken a word. I saw an old lady trying to enter the building, soundly beaten by two young women. Finally, the old lady turned and left, crying as she went. The mob congregated in all entrances and blocked them, literally hundreds of hoodlums seeking to prevent people from entering. If the police made any effort to clear the entrances, I did not see them make them. I spent close to an hour in that mob."

Dr. Shuler's testimony confirms our own belief and that of many others who observed the tactics used by the obstructors outside the high school that night. It was a group determined to frustrate free speech and free assemblage. The mob spirit was present, and the wonder is that many people were not injured.

Numerous policemen were present but they did absolutely nothing effective to break the barricade. Instead they practically cooperated with the marchers, allowing them the exclusive use of the sidewalks and the school grounds while others were pushed back across the street. It was a shameful exhibition of official cooperation with the assailants upon the fundamental freedoms of this country. It looks as though someone must have given the cops orders to let the picketers go the limit and keep people from attending the meeting.

Such a disgraceful showing of force as occurred in front of Polytechnic High School on the evening of Oct. 17 calls for serious thinking on the part of the decent citizens of this community. If a comparatively small contingent can get away with this sort of thing today, what will they attempt to do tomorrow? If our Mayor, Chief of Police and other city officials will tolerate such lawlessness and utter disregard of those basic freedoms for which America has stood 150 years, what, are we coming to? How can democratic rights be maintained?

You who sit back in smug indifference had better wake up and get into action immediately. Talk about totalitarianism. "It can happen here!" —Clinton J. Taft in The Open Forum.

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

To be sure, you are losing money at the rate of 5c per copy of The Broom. May I make the suggestion? why not charge 10c per copy, it is well worth it. There are many of us who think so, financially quite a few of us are unable to donate a few dollars in a lump. As all of us want to see The Broom a howling success from month to month, the extra 5c would help you quite a bit and would at the same time not be too much of a strain on some pocketbooks. Yours truly ELSE MOELLER.

Some time ago six persons were arrested by the FBI on charges of espionage in behalf of world Communism. They included Philip Jaffe, Mark Gayne, and four others. J. Edgar Hoover charged that these people possessed documents stolen from secret government files. The left wing and Communist press raised a howl and very little became of the whole affair. Jaffe pleaded guilty and got off with a fine of $2500. The sensational part is, however, that one of the six is now supervising the work of General MacArthur in the Far East.

Ten pro-Communist movie stars are contributing money and assisting in the organization of a campaign to imprison Gerald L. K. Smith, who now is in the midst of a West Coast speaking tour. $50,000 has been raised for the project.

Secretary of State Byrnes is reported to be more concerned at this time over the possibility of a violent outbreak in connection with the question of the Dardanelles and the Turkish provinces of Kars and Ardahan than any of the other "explosive" possibilities in Europe and Asia.

Several of the over-aged destroyers which we gave Britain have been sold for a good price by them to Russia .

Marshall Field, the millionaire playboy who is using much of his money to finance pro-Communist newspapers, is planning to buy or establish 10 more local dailies similar to the New York newspaper PM.

Negro Teacher for White Children

SAN DIEGO,—Following a three-hour school board discussion, a petition of Pacific Beach residents demanding removal of William Payne, Negro teacher in the junior high school there, stood filed without action by the school board.

Representatives of the Payroll Guarantee association, who were expected to ask for the second time for a permit for the appearance of Gerald L. K. Smith, America First leader, in a local school auditorium, did not do so.

SMITH BAN COMMENDED

Action of the board in refusing to allow Smith to speak in a school building was commended in three letters read by Supt. Will Crawford. Included were letters from the Cooks, Waitresses and Helpers union and the Painters, Decorators and Paper hangers union.

The board was commended by Mrs. Norman Thorpe, of 2168 Avocado st., Pacific Beach, mother of a student of Payne, whom she described in a letter as "a scholar and a gentleman." Mrs. Thorp, present at the meeting, charged that a number of the 1900 names on the petition asking Payne's removal were not bonafide.

Crawford answered petitioner's charge that "Payne could expect no cooperation from either parents or students and should be removed" with the statement that "there has been no complaint from either."

LIFE OF CHRIST

Jesus the Nazarite

By Dr. OTOMAN ZAR-ADUSHT HANISH

Yessu arose in reply to this introduction, declining the honor to act upon a plan with which He was not in sympathy, and beginning with Moses and the prophets laid before the council the mistakes of His people in seeking dominion and power unbecoming men who claimed to be chosen by God as examples to be followed by the masses, who thru impositions were made inferior because of a lack of opportunities. Israel was not to be a material kingdom but a Society of God. It was not to govern but to set an example unto the worldly that would attract admiration, while all matters economic and otherwise were to be regulated thru mutual consent. He reminded the council that it was not, and never had been, the will of God that Isarel should be a governing power. He further stated that the people in their ignorance and unhealthy ambition had made the demand of Samuel that they might have a king like unto other nations; that the demand made had become so great that even Samuel could no longer resist but did as he was commanded, and, that he might not be mistaken in the duties forced upon him, declared that Israel should have a king as demanded, but that "it shall be unto their condemnation." And ever since, and more than ever before, the sins of the fathers had been visited upon their children from generation to generation. Nothing but war, pestilence, subjection, captivity, famine, and destruction had been their lot, and it was only by the mere virtue of a few that the people had been restored from time to time as they showed a willingness to confess their sins and begin to lead a better and more consistent life. That since Israel was not destined to govern but to educate by a simple and yet a perfect life of purity, it would be a misstep to further any plans as those proposed by Caiaphas. Ways and means should be adopted to give the people better and more liberal opportunities to unfold their individuality that the struggle for supremacy might cease. The only way for recognition before the world as a people would lie in superior education and grander accomplishments in the intellectual realm, thus paving the way to a better understanding of Nature's eugenic and genetic laws which would insure a superior race to come.

The proofs furnished by Master Yessu were so convincing and so well defined that even Caiaphas seemed unable to retain his composure. For days and nights the pros and cons of the plans were debated, and the more the objections raised as to the steps to be taken the more tenacious and determined Caiaphas became that the plan which he had fostered for so many years should not be disrupted but carried out in toto, even if to accomplish the same it became necessary to make concessions to Yessu. To reserve the privileges given to Yessu for himself had been his fondest hopes, but nothing seemed too much for Caiaphas to do to have his cherished dream of a world-wide power realized.

For forty days and forty nights the discussions continued until Yessu felt that He had failed in His efforts and ambitions to serve humanity; felt that He had not selected the proper path, and He hungered for the liberty of those considered to be in the lower walks of life. A desire was now created in His own mind to free himself from the hands of those who attempted to lure Him from the path which He had chosen because they were seeking to use Him as an instrument for purposes not consistent with His own convictions.

However, Caiaphas did not desire to lose the friendship of Yessu. He was determined to win Him over to his side, for he knew that if there was a man in all Israel who could sway the minds of the people that man was Yessu of Nazareth.

Not only was Yessu above the average size in stature, athletic and powerful in strength, but His wonderful gift in weighing the most intricate questions, His wide experience, thotfulness and readiness for action were qualities sufficient to make Him famous, while Caiaphas was a mere Lilliputian beside this great and noble man. Caiaphas admired the unpretentious methods of Yessu and the zeal and fervor displayed in pleading for the people.

Caiaphas used all his power in an endeavor to gain the confidence and co-operation of Yessu, and failing in this began to appeal to Him in a way that would entice the ordinary type of man. "If the statements just made by you are true, then all the more it is your duty to liberate Israel," commanded Caiaphas. "If you are one of the sons of the God of Israel, true to your fathers and patriarchs, command the masses, who are as dull as stones, and turn them into useful material that will be bread unto us and the generations to come. You have the power, you possess the ability. Win these millstones for the grinding of our flour thru the execution of our plans and we will hunger no longer after righteousness."

Neither flattery nor command would change the views of Yessu. He remained unmoved. Caiaphas was by no means discouraged but he felt that he had met more than his equal and he was willing to do his utmost.

Seeing that he could not meet Yessu on a scriptural ground, after he had previously failed from a political point of view, he attempted to touch His feelings by appealing to His ambitious nature.

Caiaphas reminded Yessu of the honors already gained, and the high positions yet to be attained, and showed Him "from the pinnacle of man's highest ambitions" what the future would have in store for Him if He would only follow the suggestions given. "Let yourself down among the people and labor among men and nothing will befall you for we will assist you in all your undertakings. You will be made commander over the armies and have full power over all. The priesthood will be instructed to protect your very path and no harm will come to you, for God needs you in this most wonderful work, yea, we even recognize you as the man sent by God to fulfill His promises. We will pledge ourselves to give you all the protection at our command and will submit to your dictations if you but undertake the liberation of our people from the yoke of Rome."

But Yessu refused. Caiaphas had made concessions by no means small in his estimation and had lowered his pride to a degree not known before to the members of the Sanhedrin. But Caiaphas did not seem to waver in his determination. He still had enough perseverance left to impress Yessu favorably with his designs.

One more surprise Caiaphas had in store for Yessu; once more would Yessu be approached. Surely this time he would not fail. It had cost Caiaphas much nerve strain and he had found himself faced by one whose superiority could no longer be denied over himself. Yea, more than that, nobler than all the souls he had ever come in contact with in all his life, from the highest to the lowest. Caiaphas was willing to make a sacrifice. Whether or not he was sincere and honest in his pursuits, true and trustworthy in his new venture, remained an open question.

This much was certain, that in his last attempts Caiaphas had lowered himself to the level of even the most despised, for no longer could he hold the position of vaunted superiority once held before Yessu crossed his path. Caiaphas had all the arrangements made and the pomp and display upon this notable occasion was indeed great, so much so that there seemed no longer a doubt in the minds of the members of the Sanhedrin as to the consent of Yessu.

Yessu, against His will, was seated upon the throne of Caiaphas and made the uncrowned King of Israel. Altho uncrowned, but garbed in a purple mantle, all the members of the Sanhedrin bowed and swore allegiance to Yessu, and even Caiaphas knelt and pledged to sustain Him in all His actions. Behind closed doors, shut in from all the world, in secrecy and wholly inaccessible to the ears and eyes of even their most intimate friends, the Sanhedrin proclaimed Yessu "King of Israel," who was to lead the people and the armies of Jaho to final victory, creating Israel a power in the land.

All the resources at the command of the Sanhedrin were laid before Yessu, and His dominion was to reach even beyond the ordinary boundary lines of the House of Jacob. The time was ripe, the opportunity favorable, the purpose unmistakably good, and from the plans carefully designed it seemed that there was no obstacle in the way to reach the desired end. But one man was needed to lead them on, one whom the people would follow willingly, and one who could sway them to any deed that might be desired. (To Be Continued)

No 'Heil' Bloody Murder for Him

Dear Sir:

The article from Aug. 13th, on how the Aryans fell from God's grace is highly interesting.

As a vegetarian it began to dawn upon me long ago that I had not much, if anything at all in common with many German-speaking elements whether they belonged to the Bund or not. Their desire for meat is tremendous, with some it borders on "Cannibalism". Many are such gluttons for meat, that you could take all the choicest vegetables and fruits away from them and they would not utter a murmur; but take away the flesh and the morale is broken. That's why I have never joined the Bund or any other organizations and their "fanfare", never Heiled myself hoarse nor wore even a Swastika as I do not like much emotional display. Experience and observation has taught me long ago, that behind such an emotional display often the most selfish, greedy types hide their primative instincts.

Nevertheless I have now been in confinement since December 2nd, 1941. And after having lived 37 years in the U. S. A. I maybe sent in all likelihood back to Hungary the place of my birth now under Russian rule—to continue the long treck to Siberia! unless the Russians find a more convenient way of disposing of me.

Sincerely yours, — — J. E.

Ellis Island, N. Y.

COWS AND STEERS ARE VEGETARIAN, TOO

My Dear J. E.:

I fully agree with you concerning the large majority of the German element. Add to their meat and sausage the beer and hard booze, and there you have the whole explanation why the Jews always have succeeded to rule the Germans. It was Gallic-Teutonic mercenaries in the Roman Legions who executed the Christ on Calvary upon orders from the Jewish mob before Pilate. ELSE MOELLER just wrote a letter which we published, saying: "In my many years in this country I have found that a German and a Dollar do not mix very well."

That applied to the ancient mercentries, too. They really crucified the Christ for a few paltry soldos, hence the term, soldier.

That's why Amschel Mayer was able to sell Hessians into the service of England against the Colonists under George Washington. Meat, booze, tobacco and dollars! You are correct about naming them "Cannibals". In this fashion you have the greatest contrasts, side by side. High mental development of some; High spiritual development of a few others, but the mass just addicted to the belly, to the fear of not having plenty for the belly, hence willing to murder, oppress and rob, viz. Hitler. Really, it's fear that is ruling them, fear of their own bellies.

Concerning your own status. Bear in mind that cows and cattle are vegetarians, too, even though at present they feed cattle shark liver oil to make them give more milk and put on more meat. Thus many a milk addict is drinking second-hand shark-liver oil for "vitamin A".

Just being a vegetarian animal does not make one and ARYAN yet. To be conscious of our divine origin, THAT makes us Aryans. And no divinely conscious being indulges in cannibalism, force, violence, slaughter. That's why it is impossible for the Christ to have eaten meat or fish, regardless of the false reports to the contrary. He could not be the Christ and a Cannibal at the same time. Absurd!

If you ARE an Aryan, a conscious vegetarian, why don't you invoke your prerogatives? Don't you know that you are surrounded by angels who carry out our Father's Commands? I was locked up in insane asylums, jails, dungeons, was shot at, thrown in the bay to drown, but always came out victorious from the fray. As long as there is NO VIOLENCE IN YOU, KARMA guarantees your RIGHT to freedom to live as a peaceable being. I had "my talk with God" in the asylum, in the jails and dungeons, in the "accidents" that befell me and I asserted my RIGHT to know why I should be injured since I don't injure anybody and my body is pure from violence and murder.

Legions of angels surround us, nothing is secret. Every thought and action is recorded. Assert your RIGHT. They see you, hear you, if you don't assert yourself, nobody else will do it for you. In your own heart search yourself honestly, then appear before the Lord and demand JUSTICE, demand to know WHY you are a victim of other people's criminal tendencies.

Each time, shortly after such an appeal to the divine government which rules SUPREME, things began to "pop" and I was free and safe. There is no power that can stop the divine ORDER of things once you APPEAL to it and ARE in the RIGHT. I even set armed thugs to flight by word of mouth when I had not a single weapon to defend myself with. The power of the SPIRIT is mightier than material power.

Wishing you success, sincerely, KOSTI.

It's A Crime to Pay Good Wages

Four San Diego shoe and shoe repair stores have been penalized a total of $2394.35 for paying wages in excess of those permitted under wartime wage stabilization regulations, the 10th regional war labor board announced.

They were listed as the San Diego Bootery, $1000; Progressive Shoe Shop, $723.35; Plaza Shoe Shop, $471, and George De Boer, $200.

Overpayments will be disallowed as legitimate operating expenses in computing income taxes, according to the board. The firms were among 29 in California which admitted paying excess wages and consented to the penalties, it was reported. In every case the board approved a disallowance less than the total "illegal payroll" because the employers cooperated with government agents inspecting their records and acknowledged the facts, Thomas Fair Neblett, chairman said.

Mystery of the Missing Pickets

When driving into East San Diego from National City I have seen 2 AFL pickets down in the bottom of the canyon of Highland ave. with their "Clingman Dairy Unfair" signs. This has gone on for months. Suddenly they disappeared. I wondered why. So I stopped to investigate. At the place where the pickets used to stand in front of the gate to the dairy the following large, neat legend appears on a huge signboard. Clingman Few Acres Dairy Drivers Average $150 per month ABOVE Union scale. Who's Unfair?

Allied Mis-Government of Germany

PARIS,—What future is in store for Germany? No one in a responsible position is willing to answer that question.

Even those who have been trying to cast a new Germany, fear the mold has hardened prematurely and that some monstrous figure—perhaps half bear and half man—will emerge from their efforts.

As far as the Germans are concerned their country is already divided into four economic parts. If a German in one zone wants raw material or whatnot from another he must have all kinds of special permits and even then the chances are that the authorities in the other will refuse to allow him to take anything out. A garage owner who fixed cars for the American military government got special permission to go to Cologne to get spare parts at the Ford factory there. His trip was wasted as the British authorities refused to allow him to take anything back.

And He's a 'Sovereign' Voter !

NATIVE SURPRISED OKLAHOMA IN U. S.

A tall, gangling Negro walked into the office of the county clerk in San Diego, shuffled up to the counter, and asked Deputy Clerk Tom Sexton for papers to become a citizen.

"But you are a citizen now, aren't you?" Sexton queried.

"Well, I don't know. I was born in Oklahoma and then someone told me I had to be a citizen to vote, and all I want is to vote," the Negro replied.

After convincing the man that being born in Oklahoma didn't make a person a foreigner, Sexton directed the Negro to the office of the registrar of voters.

Decency, law and order have broken down in Danzig, Poland. No Polish girl is safe. Rape of young women by Russian occupation troops is so common that the young women of Poland have become bewildered, broken and hopeless. It does no good for them to call the police because the Russian police are as bad as the soldiers themselves.

Revengeful administrators in high places are deliberately expecting to starve one-half of the German children to death this coming winter. It is part of a liquidation program worked out in the minds of the world's most powerful and politically minded sadists.

Congressman Hook of Michigan and Congressman Patterson of California are organizing a campaign to put an end to the special committee investigating un-American activities. The Reds are getting panicky over fear of complete exposure. Patterson and Hook have always been playmates with the left wingers in and out of Congress.

Saviours or Racketeers ?

Dear Mr. Editor:

While I greatly appreciate much of your splendid work in printing much TRUTH, I must say that I do challenge you to prove your statement that Huey P. Long was a racketeer, and that Gerald L. K. Smith is likewise one.

There is no doubt that both of these men have made some blunders and mistakes, just as YOU have done, and will continue to do as long as you live. Yet, you would not like to be called a racketeer. Whether you do this intentionally or not, I cannot say. But, the fact of the matter is that when you come out with such trash as you have in your October 15th issue, you are doing a splendid work for the gang whose motto is "'DIVIDE AND CONQUER". YOU are doing more damage than you have done good I am sure, for the cause for which you claim to be working for.

Come out now and give us proof that you know what you are talking about when you make such damaging accusations at one of the BRAVEST men in America today, Gerald L K. Smith. YOU may have plenty of GUTS, but have you ever faced death itself and defied it, in order to speak the TRUTH before the American people?

Have you ever read the platform on which Smith ran for President? Did you read the FIRST plank in it? Is not Constitutional Money the most vital question before the people today? I think you owe Gerald Smith an apology, and that you should not DIVIDE the forces, but help to unite in fighting for America.

Very truly yours,
CLARENCE DOLAN

'HAM & EGGS' RACKET

Dear Mr. Dolan:

Your protest might be praiseworthy from your point of view, as well as from the fact that it brings out the issue, but it takes no magician's slight of hand to prove Huey B. Long, Gerald L. K. Smith, first class racketeers.

You are mentioning the "cause for which (I) claim to be working for" and to which (I) alleged to be "doing more damage than (I) have done good".

Well, excuse me, but what cause am I working for?

The sophistry that we must not tell the damaging truth about racketeers because "they are fighting for America" is the same the Allies used that all must defend Soviet Russia because "it is fighting for democracy." Your line of chatter may impress morons, but not me. I reiterate that Smith is a racketeer of the first water and what he is fighting for he doesn't know himself, because, once we analyze the program and methods it discloses plainly that the kind of America he is working to produce is worse than what we have.

Gerald Smith pretends to be a Christian. Gerald Smith charges that a conspiracy exists by which a Jewish-Tory-American combination imposes its tyranny upon all the world and this Jewish-Tory cabal joined hands with the Communists and the Banksters to destroy the America as visioned by the Founding Fathers and enslave us all.

Yet, in Los Angeles, I heard Smith say that his boy was a military hero, fighting the Japs and Smith preached hatred of the Japanese as clearly as words can make it.

If Smith were talking as Gerald L. K. Smith and praised his boy for being a military hero, and expressed his opinion of the Japs, we would let it pass as the ravings of a "patriotic" moron. But Smith uses the name of the Christ to first denounce the Jews and the Tory warmakers, exposes the treachery of Pearl Harbor and then turns right around and praises the military "prowess" of his son for "victory," etc. What kind of Christian doctrine does this fool represent? Besides, he joins forces with the Ham and Eggers as a means of saving the poor and destitute and producing prosperity.

You may be shortsighted enough to subscribe to the doctrine of the end justifying the means, but I prefer adherence to Principle thruout. That's the dividing line between saviordom and racketeering. By this standard we adjudge the racketeers.

Church and State don't work together to save lives and souls as long as their aims and methods are partisan & sectarian. When Church and State will unite in Principle and have the same God, goal, aim and use the same one-pointed and pure methods ethically, logically, practically, instead of professing one thing and doing "for expediency's sake" the exact opposite, then Churchmen and politicians will become statesmen and saviors while engaged in political and religious activities simultaneously; until then they are racketeers, pure and simple and I HAVE guts enough to say it and incur the contumacy of the rabble that follows them as heroes because the rabble always worships bandits.

Huey Long was a modern bandit, as much as the Banksters are pirates. He taxed one group of people for the profit of others. All Townsend, Ham & Eggs, pension this and that scheme, dated money and the rest of panaceas are rackets. They rob Peter to pay Paul. The "poor" in mind, in intelligence, in pocket book, heroize the political and religious bandits, because they are of a kind, the trash and the scum.

Economically speaking, there is no solution to the poverty question and to producing equitable adjustment except by the Henry George method. Any other proposal is a racket.

Religiously speaking, there is no salvation except the individual Christ-way. Whoever first denounces the warmakers and then praises his son as a warmaker is a criminal idiot. Yes, I have faced death a number of times for the privilege of telling the truth.

While I defend the right of Smith and every racketeer to as much freedom of speech and press as the Jews, the Communists, the Tories and the Atheists enjoy, nevertheless after fighting to give them that liberty I also warn the public to be cautious because their racket is a racket still.

APOLOGY FOR GERALD L. K. SMITH

Why do you expect me to deny the truth because such high-class morons as Long, Smith have guts enough to expose one bunch of gangsters at the risk of their very lives, only to introduce another line of socialistic fallacies that will leave the people worse off when adopted and practiced, than the state we are in now.

In fact, there is no difference between Hitler, Long, Smith and Stalin or FDR. They all are murderers without any equitable solution for the world's ills, therefore they use force and crackpot schemes.

The Catholic Church, the Church of England, "Christian Science", etc., are rackets next to the Jewish racket. They mouth God but send chaplains to bless the war murderers and give them "moral" support.

This is my apology for placing the Truth FIRST.

Yours very truly, — C. LEON de ARYAN.

N. Y. Election a Revolt Against "The Hat"

LaGuardia's Exit. . . All Top Men Tarred With Same Stick. . . . "FEPC" Nonsense

NEW YORK (Special), November 4,—Two days before the municipal election it appears that New York city voters will turn back to Tammany on next Tuesday, the 6th, and elect William O'Dwyer overwhelmingly.

Largely as a result of Dewey's poor judgment in selecting a Tammany man, Goldstein, as the Republican-Fusion candidate, and turning down Newbold Morris, a Republican and the ablest man in the present administration, the opportunity of keeping Tammany on the outside looking in, vanished.

Our eccentric mayor, "The Hat" LaGuardia, has many a fine qualities, among which are honesty and energy; but he has an erratic temper and delights in making enemies. There is a revolt against his tyrannical ways and temperament. His espousal of the independent candidate Morris (the only candidate of old American Protestant stock) cost the latter as many votes as he won for him.

This is a strange city. Its richest Republicans reside in nearby States, Connecticut and New Jersey; while many of the upper Class business and professional men live in Republican counties, like Westchester, Nassau and Suffolk.

So the polyglot New Yorkers are mostly Roosevelt New Dealers, and we find the New Deal Democracy and the red American Labor Party strongly backing O'Dwyer, which makes his election a certainty. He is not without some fine qualities and abilities, born in Ireland; came here young ; worked his way up; was once a saloon employee; made a good record as prosecutor of gangsters.

The average New Dealer does not read or possibly cannot understand, editorials. LEADING NEW YORK PAPERS ARE SUPPORTING MORRIS—the N. Y. Times, Post, etc. Even "PM" that endorsed O'Dwyer a month ago now admits today that it was in error, and has swung to Morris.

The Brooklyn grand jury last week denounced O'Dwyer for neglecting to prosecute certain criminals. But such opposition will hardly overcome the set intent of New Deal morons to support anybody endorsed by Henry Wallace, Mrs. E. Roosevelt and Jim Farley.

The powerful Negro and Jewish blocks obtained "concessions" from the three top candidates. The half dozen minor candidates, Socialist, Socialist Labor, Trotskyite, etc., are unnoticed in the race.

NEW YORK'S ELECTION IS THE PERFECT EXAMPLE OF HOW OFFICIALS SHOULD NOT BE SELECTED: The party bosses ignore the primary; they put up their choices, ignoring the people, rendering opposition in the primary futile and foolish.

The city council is not representative of communities or wards or counties. It is elected on the "proportional representation" plan; every voter is entitled to vote for as many candidates as he wishes, simply marking on a paper ballot his choices 1, 2, 3, etc.

The ordinary voter knows little or nothing of these candidates; the average voter could not give you the name of more than two or three in the race. He has to take the advice of his political boss or his favorite newspaper.

If the people voted for their choice for ONE councilman only (from their own district), and permitted the coucilmen to select an able business manager as the mayor, along with the other cabinet officials, we should have a far more honest and efficient municipal administration—true representative government.

This "democracy" is a fake and a failure.

FEPC

New York's "FEPC" is believed to be communistic effort to mongrelize our country. Mrs. Simon has issued directives to employers, forbidding them to ask of applicants for work the following questions:

(1) Are you a native born citizen? (2) Where were you born? (3) State the place of your national origin. (4) What is your religious affiliation? (5) What is your race? (6) Your complexion?

Federal City

How American "GI's" Rate Overseas Girls. . . . British Girls Tops . . . German Frauleins Win Americans' Regard . . . . Palestine ? ? ?

By WASHINGTON ADAMS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4 (Special),—Richard C. Ferguson, a U. S. sailor in London, writing to the Army newspaper Stars and Stripes, praised the English girls for possessing the "uncomplaining pioneer spirit of our grandmothers" and made them more desirable for mates than American women, whom he described as "hindrances instead of helpmates."

There is no doubt that the criticism does apply to some American girls. The article did not say where in the States Ferguson lived. But most "GI's" will, on the whole, defend the majority of American girls as possessing the fine traits of their Anglo-Saxon grandmothers.

Ferguson's comments are worthy of study by our young women and men. Perhaps they may inspire our girls to strive for emulation of their British cousins.

"ENGLISH GIRLS ARE NATURAL, UNAFFECTED, INDUSTRIOUS AND LOYAL, four important virtues which American girls lack."

Canadian, French and German women are not so much, either, he added.

"American girls are spoiled by mechanical luxuries and their wants and desires are abnormally increased by constant advertising," the sailor charged.

"The English girl has the spirit of helpfulness which DID MUCH TO BUILD AMERICA and which is non-existent in the present-day American girls.

"The fact remains that despite pancake make-up, girdles and nylon hose, American girls are found wanting when placed beside their British cousins."

American soldiers spent about a half a year training in England and Scotland before invading Africa and Italy. The army reported that about one third of all mail sent out by American doughboys in Italy was to friends in Britain, which showed what a fine impression those grand Anglo-Saxon homeland girls made on our boys.

Now from Germany come similar stories, that the German frauleins are doing wonders in good will for their ruined country. Hundreds of them are employed as translators and secretaries for the U. S. occupation forces, and they are "making good" in a big way.

PALESTINE

In a recent radio forum (CBS), the editor of the "Arab World," whose name I did not catch, simply "ate up" Rabbi Goldstein on the Palestine Zionist question.

The Arab said that Palestine had been in possession of its present Arab owners longer than the English had been in England; that to demand that the sovereign owners of Palestine turn their country over to a million immigrant foreigners was the most outrageous proposal that had been made in the history of the human race, a gross injustice.

The Jews are not a race, although most of them act as if they were. Only a few of them are descended from Palestinian ancestors. Although many of them trace an Asiatic origin, the great bulk of them have become Europeanized and are non-semitic in blood. Disraeli said that the purest Semite in the world today was the Arab of the desert—not the Jew, nither Sephardic nor Ashkenazic.

The Palestinian Arabs (and all Moslems) honor and respect Christ and Christianity. Good Christians think of Palestine as the "Holy Land of Christ," and desire that it remain so.

The persecuted refugee Jews of Europe deserve a homeland, if possible, but why impose them on Palestine? WHY NOT CONSIDER MADAGASCAR? It is a great island, many times the size of Palestine. Why not buy it up openly and honestly, and help the homeless Jews to find a refugee there?

French Return 'Living Corpses' To Yanks' Care

LIKEN GERMANS TO VICTIMS OF OWN CAMPS

CROUTOY, France,—The first German prisoners of war returned to United States army control by the French have been classified as unfit to work by American medical authorities. Many of them look almost like corpses resurrected from the horror camps of their own fatherland.

The former German soldiers, who had been turned over to the French as laborers, are being taken back by the Americans under a project identified by the army code name "Operation Skinny." They were called back after International Red Cross charges that they were being treated below standards set by international convention.

The charges resulted in Gen. Eisenhower halting more transfers to the French and then agreeing to take back those unfit for labor. The French have insisted that most of them were returned in the same condition in which they had been received.

BEGGAR ARMY IN TATTERS

One group of 1,151 prisoners arrived yesterday. It was a beggar army of pale, thin men clad in vermin infested tatters. American sources say that the men had been adequately fed, clothed, shod, and equipped with blankets when they were turned over to the French four months ago.

Associated Press Photographer Henry Griffin, who took pictures of the piled corpses in every German concentration camp from Buchenwald to Dauchau, said:

"The only difference I can see between these men and those corpses is that here they're still breathing."

All said they had not eaten in two days. Four were brought in on stretchers. A few were hospitalized immediately and fed intravenously. The rest, after a light meal, filled out a questionnaire on their treatment by the French. Then they were deloused, given blankets, and assigned to winterized tents to await medical screening.

ALL UNFIT TO WORK

This group followed two earlier batches totaling 1,323, bringing to 2,474 the number of Germans returned here for rehabilitation so they can be sent home. All the previous arrivals were unfit to work—three-quarters of them because of malnutrition. Medical officers said 19 per cent were severe cases requiring infirmary treatment.

Gen. De Gaulle has told Gen Eisenhower that many French-held prisoners were received in a "deplorable state." Many of the new arrivals have confirmed that they had been classed unfit for work from the start but previous groups said they had been worked in stone quarries coal mines, farms, and cleanup details. Men in both categories said their condition worsened in French custody.

Cannibals— are people who live off their own kind. They may either kill and eat them or they may eat by killing them. How many Germans in the USA are eating today from the wages that killed their own relatives in Europe? And how many more are going to die this winter in Europe forced into the frozen hell under the arms produced by their German relatives in the USA? This unthinking, un-Christian attitude of forcing people to starve, freeze and die by not permitting them to help themselves is just as much Cannibalism as eating their corpses. The real cannibal kills to eat, but our modern cannibals act like tigers, they kill wantonly to prove their power.
